DIAMOND WEDDING.—

WILLIAMS—ROBERTS. At Seion Chapel, Llangollen, by the Rev. John Curry, on June 10th, 1895, Austin Williams to Martha J. Roberts. Belle View, Llangollen.

IN MEMORIAM

ALEXANDER. Birthday Remembrance, Treasured birthday, June 5th. memories of our darling daughter, Norma.

Not a day do we forget you

In our hearts you're always near,
As we loved you, so we miss you
As it dawns another year.

Worthy of our everlasting remembrance, Mother, Father, brothers and Sisters, also Auntie,

IN MEMORIAM

In loving of Dear Mother, who passed away June 1st., 1952.

Not just today, but every day, in silence we remember.

Daughter Nellie and Son-in-law
Albert.

15 John Street,
Llangollen.

TRAINS.—

Every day since the A.S.L.E.F. strike, Llangollen has had one passenger train up and one down. Though it is actually only one train. The engine-driver lives at Pwllheli and he brings the train up to Ruabon, and back again home to Pwllheli in the evening. The train leaves Llangollen (on its return journey) about 4.30 p.m.

The roads, of course, are crowded with vehicles, and it is strange and welcome to see great lorries of coal speeding on the A5. in the Corwen direction.

DR. CHARLES EVANS.—

May we add our small tribute to the countless congratulations offered to Dr. Evans on his brilliant feat in climbing the world's highest unclimbed mountain, after Everest, just exactly two years after he had taken part in the conquest of that formidable peak.

His relatives here will be delighted at the good news; and the fortunate young people who heard him lecture when Mr. Maurice Jones arranged for him to lecture to the Grammar School pupils will feel a special thrill.

U.D.C. ANNUAL MEETING MAY 20

The main business of an Urban Council Annual Meeting is to appoint members on the innumerable committees, associations, boards and conferences on which the Council is entitled to representation.

To mention first its own Committees all nine councillors were appointed to the Finance, General Purposes, Health and Housing, Rating and Civil Defence Committees.

Library Committee: All councillors were appointed and also all the present non-council members, with the proviso that the Committee should nominate one to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Cooke.

Plas Newydd Museum Committee.— This new committee, appointed at the suggestion of the Library Committee last year, has not yet met, owing to illness of two members—Mr. Furley at one time and Mr. Grainger afterwards. All Councillors were appointed to it for this year, the Library Committee to nominate additional members.

A request for the appointment of Trustees of the Town Band caused some discussion. It was said that few of the original Trustees (non U.D.C. members) remained and it was resolved to defer this matter: but to appoint Miss Gwyneth Jones, Mr. J. C. Roberts and J. D. Clarke on the Town Band Management Committee.

The Clerk read out the new regulations re Grammar School Governors made April 18, 1955. The number of Governors will now be 17, elected by various local authorities. Two from Llangollen U.D.C. The present members Messrs. J. N. Bowen and F. C. Ellis were appointed.

Messrs. Bennett and Hayes were appointed Managers of the Junior School and Messrs. Ellis, Mann and J. C. Roberts managers of the Infants School—present official title being County Primary School.

Couns. Bennett, Clarke, Ellis, Evans and Roberts were appointed on the Llangollen Evening Schools Committee. The three appointed as members of the Publicity Association are Couns. Clarke, Hayes and Roberts.

The Council of Social Service has five U.D.C. members: Miss Gwyneth Jones and Messrs. Bennett, Bowen, Mann and Roberts; while the Council of Youth has three: Miss Gwyneth Jones and Messrs. Clarke and Evans.

For the Llangollen Angling Association it was resolved that the Chairman of the General Purposes Committee, when appointed, should represent the U.D.C. on its executive Committee and Couns. Ellis, Hayes and Mann were appointed to attend General Meetings of the Angling Association.

Charities.— St. Thomas's Charity has Messrs. Clarke and F. C. Ellis, and Coun. Ellis is also the representative on the Mathews School Charity. Coun. Mann was appointed to represent the U.D.C. on the Llangollen Samaritan Fund which is run in connection with our Cottage Hospital.

The Conference of the U.D.C. Association is to be held at Blackpool, June 22—24 and the Chairman, Coun. F. C. Ellis, and the Clerk were appointed to attend.

There are still more appointments to record, but we shall report them next week.

THE LATE MRS. ALICE WYSE.—

It is now two years since Mrs. Wyse left Glandwr, the residence she had purchased after leaving Penybryn. Her failing eyesight made it unwise for her to live alone and she spent the last two years visiting her daughter and sons. She died at the age of 87 on May 28th.

A native of Surrey and an only child, early orphaned, before her marriage Mrs. Wyse was lady's maid to Lady Brassey, the famous yachswoman and author of lively books describing voyages she and Lord Brassey made on the seven seas. On several of these voyages, Mrs. Wyse accompanied her.

It is a far cry from Surrey to Glyndyfrdwy but Mr. Wm. Wyse accompanied a friend on a journey there which took him to Lord Brassey's home and that is how he met his future wife, whom he brought to Rhysgog.

Mrs. Wyse was a woman of outstanding qualities, as upright in character as in her carriage, a staunch friend, and an excellent wife and mother.

The funeral took place at Llantysilio on Tuesday afternoon, May 31st. the Rev. J. Alun Thomas, M.A. officiating. Miss Gwyneth Davies was at the organ.

The mourners were: Mrs. Lily Widdicombe, Chwilog (daughter); Mr. and Mrs. Allan Wyse, Sutton Coldfield; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Wyse Penmaenpool, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Wyse Wrexham, (sons and daughters-in-law); Mrs. Mitra (grand-daughter); Mrs. David Lloyd and Mrs. David Roberts, both of Glyndyfrdwy (sisters-in-law); Mr. and Mrs. George Wyse (nephew); Mrs. Walter Jones, Chester and Miss Bessie Parry, whose mother, Mrs. S. R. Parry, was such a close friend of Mrs. Wyse's. Mr. Widdicombe was unable to attend owing to indisposition.

CONDOLENCES.—

Our sympathy is extended to the family of the late Mrs. Sarah Cromie of Wallasey, daughter of the late Mr. Charles Williams, who died on May 14th. She is survived by her daughter, Miss Madge Cromie and by three sisters, Miss Margaret Williams, B'ham, Miss Amy Williams, Wallasey, Mrs. MacDonald, Incerness and by three brothers Mr. J. Stanley Williams, Coun. A. Lloyd Williams, and Mr. Harry Williams to whom we wish a good recovery from his long and trying indisposition.

Our condolences are also expressed to the daughters of the late Mrs. Handel Roberts, who, surviving her husband by 15 months, died at the age of 80 at the residence of her daughter, Miss Lena Roberts of Wrexham. The funeral took place at St. John's Church Llangollen on May 25.

INTERESTING HOUSING CASE.—

Having tried unsuccessfully, since May 1954, by negotiation, to get certain repairs carried out by the owners of Dee Mount, to that house, the Urban District Council served a notice upon them under Section 9 of the 1936 Housing Act, as amended by 1954 legislation, to carry out repairs estimated by the Surveyor to cost £220.

The owners Miss Ethel Emlyn Jones and Mrs. Gwenfron Emlyn Addison, of Berwynfa, North Harrow, appealed against the order at Wrexham County Court on May 25th., but lost their appeal, Judge Ernest Evans saying that no evidence had been produced in support of it,

FIRST PROSECUTION FOR DAMAGE AT PLAS NEWYDD

Much has been heard of damage to fencing and plants in Plas Newydd Glen, and yesterday the Urban District Council brought a case before the magistrates of damage to a tree,

THE LATE MR. EVAN JONES.—

It was deep regret that the townspeople of Llangollen learnt of the death on Saturday, May 28th. of Mr. Evan Jones, Market St., for his gentle unassuming disposition had endeared him to a large number of friends. His winning smile, his interesting conversation, will remain to them a happy memory.

Mr. Jones will be greatly missed at Rehoboth, especially in the Sunday School for he was an excellent teacher. Book and music were his interests and at the 1908 National Eisteddfod at Llangollen he was received a member of the Gorsedd, his bardic name being Alaw Berwyn.

Mr. Jones had retired some years ago from his employment as Road Inspector, Western Division of the D.C.C.

A widower, he is survived by his sister, Miss E. Jones, who shared his home, and by three daughters. His brother, Mr. David Jones, of New York, also survives him. Two years ago Mr. David Jones spent some weeks in Llangollen to the mutual pleasure of the two brothers.

The funeral took place on Tuesday, May 31. A service was held at Rehoboth at two o'clock. The Revs. G. Aled Williams, Ieuan Lloyd and W. Llewelyn Jones took part. The interment was at the Vron Cemetery.

The family mourners were: Miss E. Jones (sister); Misses Blodwen and Elizabeth Jones (daughters); Mr. and Mrs. E. Evans, Wrexham (son-in-law and daughter); Miss Glenys Evans (grand-daughter); Mr. and Mrs. W. Hewitt, Wrexham (niece); Miss Blodwen Rees and Mrs. Ruth Owen; Mr. David Rees and Mr. John Rees; Coun. J. W. Davies and Mr. and Mrs. Wynn Davies of Glynceiriog (nephews); Mr. and Mrs. E. Evans and Messrs. Edgar and Abner Thomas of Llangadfan; Mr. Pryce Jones, Glynceiriog.

Mr. Wm. Lowe also attended on behalf of the County Council Roads Dept.

The bearers were: Messrs. R. Ellis Evans, Ifor Edwards, Athalstan Hughes and John Rees.

THANKS.—

The family of the late Mr. Evan Jones return sincere thanks for all kind expressions of sympathy and floral tributes received by them in their sudden, sad bereavement.
Market St.,
Llangollen.

OBITUARY.—

The Late Mrs. W. E. Edwards

It was with very deep regret, and heartfelt sympathy for her son, Mr. Norman Edwards, that we learnt of the death of Mrs. Edwards, Geraint View on June 2.

Mrs. Edwards had not been well for some time, and on Tuesday last she developed bronchitis. Her sister, Miss Morgan, and Mrs. Williams, Ormonde House were carefully nursing her, but her condition deteriorated suddenly on Thursday morning, and she succumbed before Mr. Edwards could arrive after being hastily summoned from Monsanto's clerical dept.

The funeral took place at St. John's on Saturday.

The Late Mrs. Evans, Leahurst

Sympathy is extended to Mr. Evans, Leahurst, and Mrs. Saunders on the death of their mother, Mrs. Myfanwy Bates Evans which occurred in hospital last week.

LLANTYSILIO W.I.—

We had a perfect day on June 1st. for our Old Folk's Treat. Starting from Rhewl we collected a coach load of 30 guests and set off for a Mystery Trip. This proved to be a delightful drive through Chirk, (taking a look at the Pengwern Housing Estate enroute) Glyn Ceiriog, through Selattyn to Oswestry. Everywhere the countryside looked green and fresh and bathed in sunshine, and was much enjoyed by all. We came home by way of Weston Rhyn and Chirk, and arrived at Llantysilio School to find a most welcome tea awaiting us. Our Tea helpers had certainly excelled themselves, for everything was so appetising and beautifully arranged on the flower-decked tables.

After tea Mrs. Parry entertained us at the piano; our guests joined in the singing and Mrs. Baines gave us a solo, the Ash Grove, which received hearty applause.

Then the snaps taken at last year's party were handed round, causing much interest and amusement.

After Mr. Ball had expressed the thanks of all to Llantysilio W.I. our guests were escorted to the waiting bus.

Grateful thanks are extended to Bryn Melyn for their kind co-operation and to all those who helped to make this beautiful afternoon such a happy occasion.

LLANGOLLEN SAVINGS COMMITTEE

The Llangollen Savings Committee met on May 23 at the Constitutional Club. The Chair was taken by Rev. J. W. Worthington who referred to the recent death of Mr. B. G. Cooke, an active and valued member of the Committee. The members stood in silent tribute to his memory.

The Secretary, Mr. J. H. Pierce, reported on the New Savers Campaign and said the Committee, and especially the voluntary Savings Group Workers, had every reason to be proud of their achievement, as Llangollen was one of the few Committees which achieved its target, and in fact the target was passed by five per cent. The New Savers figure compared with previous years showed an increase of 40 per cent.

Llangollen total Savings for the year ending March 1955 was £85,325, and this said Mr. Pierce, was equivalent to an average weekly saving of 5/4d. for every man, woman and child in Llangollen. This was an increase of 2/- per head per week over 1954.

The Assistant Commissioner congratulated the Committee on the excellent results obtained, and said that there had been a secondary target adopted by all Committees throughout the country, and this for a five per cent increase in Savings Group membership. Here again Llangollen had secured an outstanding success, as they had achieved a membership equal to seven per cent of the previous year's membership.

Delegates to attend the North Wales Annual Conference were Rev. J. W. Worthington and Miss K. Morris, Trevor.

The Chairman welcomed Mr. D'Eath as a newly co-opted member of the Local Committee, representing the By Scouts Movement.

LLANGOLLEN W.I.—

If ever you have the good fortune to visit America then do make an effort to see California" said Mrs. Puleston Davies, when giving a talk to W.I. members at the June Monthly Meeting.

Mrs. Davies with another member of the W.I. organisation were the guests of the Associated Women of the American Farm Bureau who arranged a three months coast to coast tour of the American Continent—hospitality provided and expenses paid.

In each city at which they called, they were met by a hostess, who stayed in their hotel with them, arranged lectures and interviews—New York the starting point, where they spent a few days, seemed impressive but very noisy, "When we were in the street," said the speaker "the buildings on either side were so high they gave one the uncomfortable impression they might cave in on one at any moment. On leaving New York their first call was a farm in Connecticut "The farm buildings—the countryside were so homely, one might say cosy" said the speaker, "it reminded me very much of the County of Merioneth." Then on to the middle West, the scene changing all the time. Here the earth was burnt a golden brown colour by the sun, here we were in the land of distant horizons. Finally arriving in California, what a change! Lush green grass, champagne air instead of burnt brown earth—Yes it seemed a veritable Paradise.

The city of Los Angeles was very interesting, especially the old Mexican quarters where one finds buildings of character. What did I miss? a good cup of tea—There was tea of a kind made up in small paper packets, but of a very poor quality. No wonder the Americans drink coffee.

When staying at a farm ranch, while others were drinking coffee, I would get permission to forage in the kitchen cupboard for a packet of tea—find a saucepan, there are no tea pots, boil some water, and pour in the contents of the wee packet. The result—not bad.

There was never a dull moment, our programme was full to overflowing Lectures—Interviews—from dawn till dusk, what did we talk about? The life of the country woman in Britain, the Women's Institute, Life on a farm in Britain—and to whom Women's Guilds of all sorts,—the American equivalent of Young Farmers Clubs and other various organisations, we gave interviews, Television Appearances—in fact there was 'nt much we didn't do.

Often after having been greeted by the President of a gathering we were presented with a corsage of flowers to wear for the evening—and how those meetings went on and on. They never seemed to tire. Sometimes they would start with a Reading and a Prayer—then a talk, refreshments, finishing with square dancing, and we arrived home about midnight, crawl upstairs to bed utterly exhausted, only to be told that one would be called at 7 a.m. the next day—as a radio interview had been arranged at 8 a.m. Yes! it was a hectic time, but one would'nt have missed a moment of it.

'Any Questions' formed a feature of the Social Half Hour, lively discussions, on burning topics of the hour took place. The Question Master was Mrs. Fell, the team, Mrs. Maurice Jones, Mrs. E. J. Jones, Mrs. Ellis, Mrs. T. Price.

The destination of the Annual Outing will be Wedgewood Pottery Factory, Trentham Gardens, Buxton.

W.I. EISTEDDFOD December 1st

We opened our Eisteddfod with pianoforte solos and worked our way through to a most exciting climax of hilarious action-song of "Mochyn Du" and "MacNamara's Band"! Highest praise must go to Mrs. Davies, Plas Newydd, who worked so hard to produce such an excellent Eisteddfod. Mrs. Harriet Price excelled as our compere and the adjudicators deserve every credit for the way they discharge their difficult task. The standard of handicraft was very high; in Mrs. Pierce's own words: "We had to look hard for faults and found very little to criticise." Miss Monica Jones adjudicated the cooking and many of us benefited from her remarks and suggestions. There were many musical entries and Mrs. Hemington earned our high respect for her excellent judging and musical interpretation. Literary items came under the jurisdiction of Mr. W. E. Williams (Glyndyfrdwy), who—if laughter is anything to go by—enjoyed himself very much. In fact everyone enjoyed themselves and Llangollen W.I. has proved itself full of talent and capable of providing first-class entertainment. We congratulate Mrs. Williams (Oakcroft) on gaining the highest number of points and, Mrs. Hywel Edwards and Mrs. Williams (Post Office), who came second with equal points.

Darts

The Wynnstay gained their first win of the season in their home match against the Grapes. At the interval the homesters had gained a comfortable lead of 4—0, and the odds were a pound note to a pinch of salt that tonight they were, for the first time going to romp home in an easy win:—but, it almost didn't come off! In the second half the tables were turned and it was the Grapes who had the homesters really worried at this period. Just one more point, that's all the Wynnstay wanted, to make the night a gala. One, this was a thrilling game. The visitors were making a fight of it. Could the Grapes reverse the score in this second half. The way they played it seemed possible, but unfortunately for them it was left to the homesters to gain the deciding point to make the score 5—3, after a thrilling and most exciting match.

There was a good crowd at the Prince on Tuesday night when they entertained the Bull. Here were two friendly rivals, holding third and second positions respectively in the league table, going to prove each other's weakness in the attempt to gain full points, and here were two grand sides who respected each other's ability. The games opened up well for the Prince who succeeded in gaining the first two games of the series, but the Bull retaliated and gained the next two making the score 2 all at the interval.

It was the Bull who took the lead in the second half but the Prince drew level in the second game. Again the Bull took the lead in the third session making it 4—3 but the last and tense game ended in a win for the Prince which made the score 4 all. The Bridge End in their away game did well to gain full points at the Australia. The Sun gained an easy two at the expense of the Waterloo who were unable to field a full side. Seems rather grim to give two points away and so near the top. Hard Luck! L.D.

ELECTORS LISTS

Constituency of Denbigh
REGISTRATION UNITS
All Registration Units.

Lists of persons whose names are proposed for inclusion in the next Register of Electors are now available for inspection at my Office and at the Offices of the:

Town Clerks of Colwyn Bay, Denbigh and Ruthin;

Clerks to the Urban District Councils of Abergele, Llangollen and Llanrwst;

Clerks to the Rural Districts of Aled (34, Water Street, Rhyl), Ceiriog (The Mount, Chirk), Hiraethog (Avondale, Llanrwst), Ruthin (Well St., Ruthin), and Wrexham (Imperial Buildings, Wrexham);

Clerks to the Parish Councils; and also at Chapels, Churches, Police Stations and Principal Post Offices.

Any Person of 21 years of age or over, or who will attain the age of 21 before 16th June next who was resident in this constituency on the qualifying date 10th OCTOBER, 1955, or who occupied premises therein on that date of a yearly value of not less than £10 is advised to inspect the lists to make sure that his or her name is included.

A claim to be included or a request for the alteration of any entry or an objection to the inclusion of any other person's name must reach me on the proper form (or a form to the like effect) at the address below not later than 16th December, 1955. Forms can be obtained at that address.

MARKING OF JURORS

The letter "J" after a person's name in the lists means that it is proposed to include him in the jurors book as liable for jury service during the year commencing 15th August, 1956.

Any person whose name is so marked and who claims exemption from jury service or claims that he is not qualified to be a juror may apply to me at the address below not later than 16th December, 1955 stating the grounds for his application.

C.P.R.W.

In Welsh "Cymdeithas Diogelu Harddwch Cymru"—the Society for Securing the Beauty of Wales. Its name in English corresponds to its sister society, the Council for the Prevention of Rural England. And a very kind elder sister that society is, for its able secretary, Mr. Griffin also acts as Secretary for the C.P.R.W. and in the same Office, 4 Hobart Place, London. For only two short periods has Wales been able to afford a paid secretary resident in Wales, tho' Mr. J. D. K. Lloyd of Montgomery continues to give his services as Hon. Secretary.

A meeting of the Denbighshire subscribers was held at Ruthin last Tuesday, convened by Major Herzog who has been the county convener for very many years. The Lord Lieutenant Col. Wynne-Finch presided.

Of the 31 subscribing members in Denbighshire, eight are resident in Llangollen and six of them attended the meeting. In addition Llangollen Developments Association is a subscribing affiliated body.

There was an excellent attendance and the Ruthin R.D.C. very kindly lent their beautifully appointed Council Chamber for the meeting, after which Major and Mrs. Herzog entertained the members to tea at the Castle Hotel.

The County Development Plan and the work of the County Planning Committee was the subject before the meeting, which was introduced by Mr. Peckover Burrill of Trefnant, who is the Committee's chairman.

The main address was given by Mr. A. V. Lewis, County Planning Officer, who gave a synopsis of the work. The object of planning is to develop land in the best interests of the community as a whole. There are still people—even on public bodies, he said, who care only for their own interest in development.

Two items of interest to Llangollen in his address were that nothing can be done about the caravans in the Abbey Field because the site was there before 1947; and that the Eglwyseg Rock escarpments are now declared a nature reserve.

We find much more that makes entertaining reading today. Henry VI wanted to prohibit the use of the "wicked weed called Hops, which doth turn wholesome ale into beer," but this opinion of our forefathers that the Hop would spoil the taste of drink and endanger the health of the people has long since passed away.

Some members of the Lily family were highly prized by the ancients and to shew their regard for two of them it is sufficient to quote the old proverb. "Eat Leeks in March and Garlic in May, then all the year round the Physicians may play."

Gerarde knew his Deadly Nightshade (Belladonna) for says he. "If you will follow my counsel deal not with this plant in any way. Banish it from your gardens and the use of it also, being a plant so furious and deadly, for it bringeth such as have eaten thereof into a deep sleep, wherein many have died."

Old Nic Culpepper was not always kind when giving his advice. Says he of the Water Pepper which he calls Arssmart—"A good handful of the hot biting Arssmart put under the saddle of a horse, will make him go twice as fast although he were half tired before."

Gourmets were advised to take Wormwood steeped in wine when its tonic properties would counteract their over indulgence in food but that was long before the days of soda-mints.

Culpepper, however, fell foul of the physicians for he persisted in telling them that they were as ignorant of the science of botany as the horses on which they rode. A.G.

Grammar School Notes

Junior Debating Society.

On Wednesday, 30th November the last meeting for the Christmas Term of the Junior Debating Society of the Grammar School was held after School. More than fifty Juniors stayed for the meeting—no mean attendance when it is remembered that many had to travel back to Glynceiriog afterwards by the 6 o'clock bus. The topics debated were well presented by the principal speakers, many of whom spoke for the first time. Three motions were before the House: (i) That the examination system is of positive harm to the progress of true education, (carried by 34 votes to 14, with 5 abstentions). (ii) That Modesty is not the best policy, (defeated by 31 votes to 14 with 9 abstentions). (iii) That we live to eat rather than eat to live, (defeated by 30 votes to 1, with 9 abstentions). The following pupils were among the principal speakers: Cynthia Roberts and Valerie Roberts, IA; Mair Davies, Maureen Miller, Emyr Davies, Wyn Jones, IIB; Geoffrey Green, Terina Perriton, IIA; Kathleen Davies, Anita Jones, Roberta Jones, Trevor Williams, IIIA; All the children appeared to enjoy the meeting thoroughly. Parents will realise what admirable training this is for later life.

The BAG

Llangollen Youth Club decided to send a handbag to the big National Youth Bazaar held in London in November.

Lionel Green was chosen to make it.

Mrs. Dilys Bertram Evans of Prestatyn, who was in charge of the Welsh stall at the Bazaar, has written three letters of appreciation to Llangollen—one to Mr. H. Lloyd Roberts, one to Lionel and one to Mr. Harold Roberts. The handbag fitted inside with zip purse evidently drew a great deal of attention.

To Lionel Mrs. Evans says "I shall always connect your name with a perfect piece of work."

To Mr. Roberts, she says "May I congratulate you on having got from one of your pupils such excellent workmanship."

Obituary

At Welshpool Hospital on December 3, 1955, aged 57, Robert Wynn Williams of 48 Erw Wen, Welshpool, the beloved husband of Helen, father of Hugh and David and brother of Marie, Sybil and David of 3 Park Avenue, Llangollen.

We regret to record the death last week of Mr. E. W. Roberts, Tanygraig, Eglwyseg.

Mr. Roberts lived alone, and it was Mr. Malster on his round with the post on Saturday morning who discovered him dead in his farm kitchen, his dog keeping watch at his side.

Death was due to natural causes and no inquest was necessary.

Mr. Roberts is survived by two sisters and a brother and to them we tender our sympathy.

THE NEW SURVEYOR.—

In two previous issues we have said that Mr. H. or W. was offered the post: now we can safely say that Mr. Fawcett has accepted the post of Sanitary Inspector and Surveyor to which he was appointed last Tuesday.

This is the Council's third appointment—two previous successful applicants, Mr. Hodgkins, of Chelmsford, and Mr. R. Vaughan Watkins, of Haydock, having turned down the post after verbal acceptances.

Twenty six years of age, Mr. Graham Fawcett is married and lives at "Kenilworth," Brynffynnon, Cefn Mawr.

He is fully qualified for all the various tasks which fall to the lot of Sanitary Inspector and Surveyor.

Mr. Fawcett's father holds a managerial position at Penybont Brickworks, as did his father before him.

'TIM'

The Speaking Clock has now come to Wrexham Telephone Exchange. To obtain the correct time the code to be dialled by Llangollen subscribers is 9952 and the charge for such a call from a Llangollen telephone will 4½d. The facility will not be available to call offices or to subscribers renting coin box lines.

The speaking clock, popularly known to telephone users as "TIM" because in London connection is obtained by dialling T-I-M, was designed and constructed in the Post Office Engineering Research Station at Dollis Hill. The service was inaugurated in London in July, 1936, and has since been extended to many other large centres.

Two speaking clock installations, one at Holborn Exchange in London, and the other in Liverpool, provide the service, and all "TIM" calls are connected to amplifiers supplied by one or other of these. In the event of a complete failure at either centre the other can be used to supply all distribution points.

The voice of the speaking clock is the reproduction of a recording and the principle of this recording is similar to that used in the talking film, but four glass discs are used instead of celluloid. The sound tracks on the glass discs are recordings of phrases and numbers from which the complete announcement is built up by focusing beams of light on to the appropriate tracks in turn. The beams of light pass through the sound tracks on to photo-electric cells which respond by generating electric currents which are then amplified to give a volume of speech sufficient to permit some hundreds of subscribers to listen to the announcements simultaneously. The glass discs and their accompanying mechanism are driven by a synchronous electric motor of unique design.

Every hour the accuracy of the clock is automatically checked against a time signal from Greenwich and any slight difference corrected. Accuracy to 1/10th second is the standard, but in the rare event of a difference more than 1/5th second or any other failure the service is automatically transferred to a stand-by clock which has been kept running but not "talking."

The speaking clock is not affected by failure of the public electricity supply. While some of the power for the speaking clock is normally taken from the mains, if the voltage falls below a certain level automatic switching gear comes into operation and the necessary power is obtained from the telephone exchange batteries.

THE DEEP BLUE SEA.—

This brilliant three act play by Terence Rattigan was given on Saturday, November 5th., the last night of the Company's Welsh tour; and the audience the largest for an Arts Council production in Llangollen since "Jane Eyre."

The play is full of subtle motivisation and tense dramatic moments. The first act gripped the audience and the denouement, for a triangle play, was unusual, leaving the heroine, after two attempts at suicide calmly packing luggage for the Ex-Airman hero.

Jenny Webster; Manager: W. Bland Wood; Stage Director: David Paul; Stage Manager: Peter Theobald; Assistant Stage Managers: Eileen Varley, Douglas Dempster. Scenery built in the Bristol Old Vic workshops and painted by Jennie Webster.

The Arts Council of Great Britain, Director for Wales: Miss Myra Owen, O.B.E.; The Bristol Old Vic Company: Director, John Moody.

LLANGOLLEN PARISH CHURCH.

On Sunday, Dec. 4th a new frontal, a labour of love on the part of Miss P. M. Chubb, was dedicated immediately before the 11 a.m. Service. The work, beautifully executed, was offered in memory of Miss Chubb's father, Thomas Wycherley Chubb, at one time churchwarden of St. Collen's and whose sister was present at the dedication. The Vicar officiated.

The Altar Book used for the first time in the Service, together with a similarly handsomely bound Book of Common Prayer, had already been dedicated by the Vicar. These choice volumes were the gift of Miss Margaret Hudson Cromie in memory of her mother Sarah Louise Cromie 1887—1955, widow of James Alfred Cromie and daughter of the late Charles Williams; and of her brother John Cromie 1916—1937.

CHRISTMAS FAIR.—

This effort in aid of the Parish Church funds was held on Thursday, December 1st., being opened at 3 p.m. by Mrs. G. L. Wood. The Vicar introduced the Opener, who made a well-commended speech for which she was thanked by Mr. H. G. Best, Vicar's Warden. Master John Hayward presented the bouquet with dignity. The stallholders had worked hard and were well supported by a good attendance and brisk buying. A total of over £230 has been declared. The stall results were :as follows Cakes £17.8.9, Provisions £10, Mrs. Snowball's Hamper £23.5.0, Toys £27.10.6½, Farmers £18.7.0, Produce £6.11.6, China £12.2.10, Caledonian Market £4.15.2½, Sewing Party £89.14.0, Parcel post £12, Refreshments £9.2.5½, Treasure Trove £1.13.0.

ELECTORS LISTS

Constituency of Denbigh

REGISTRATION UNITS

All Registration Units.

Lists of persons whose names are proposed for inclusion in the next Register of Electors are now available for inspection at my Office and at the Offices of the:

Town Clerks of Colwyn Bay, Denbigh and Ruthin;

Clerks to the Urban District Councils of Abergele, Llangollen and Llanrwst;

Clerks to the Rural Districts of Aled (34, Water Street, Rhyl), Ceiriog (The Mount, Chirk), Hiraethog (Avondale, Llanrwst), Ruthin (Well St., Ruthin), and Wrexham (Imperial Buildings, Wrexham);

Clerks to the Parish Councils; and also at Chapels, Churches, Police Stations and Principal Post Offices.

Any Person of 21 years of age or over, or who will attain the age of 21 before 16th June next who was resident in this constituency on the qualifying date 10th OCTOBER, 1955, or who occupied premises therein on that date of a yearly value of not less than £10 is advised to inspect the lists to make sure that his or her name is included.

A claim to be included or a request for the alteration of any entry or an objection to the inclusion of any other person's name must reach me on the proper form (or a form to the like effect) at the address below not later than 16th December, 1955. Forms can be obtained at that address.

MARKING OF JURORS

The letter "J" after a person's name in the lists means that it is proposed to include him in the jurors book as liable for jury service during the year commencing 15th August, 1956.

Any person whose name is so marked and who claims exemption from jury service or claims that he is not qualified to be a juror may apply to me at the address below not later than 16th December, 1955 stating the grounds for his application.

U.D.C. MEETING, DEC. 6.—

Coun. F. C. Ellis presided and there was a full attendance.

Points of interest form the various minutes adopted were:—

Mr. A Bluck of 14 Regent St. was offered the tenancy of No. 67 Pengwern. At the same time it was resolved to write to the owner and tenant of No. 14 Regent St. to avoid overcrowding (through sub-letting) of the house in future.

Mr. Lovatt was asked (on Nov 25) to inspect the Refuse Tip (which has had such a stubborn fire in it) and to advise thereon; and that any action he recommends in consultation with the Chairman of the Council and Chairman of the G.P. Committee be sanctioned.

An Outline application was submitted on behalf of Mr. C. A. Hughes for the erection of a Garage for minor repairs and garaging of car on the vacant lot of land at the corner of Market St. and George St.

It was agreed at the Council Meeting to send the application to the County Planning Authority.

THE U.D.C. and ECONOMY.—

This interesting debate on December 6th, was initiated by Coun. J. R. Hayes who raised the matter on the adoption of the Finance Committee minutes which noted the receipts of a Communication issued jointly by the Chancellor of the Exchequer and the Minister of Housing and Local Government.

It will be fully reported next week.

Darts

The Prince gained their highest win of the season in their away match against the Waterloo. Leading 3—1 at the interval, the visitors piled on the pressure in the second half to win 7—1. This match which I considered to be a real test for both sides proved to be a one-sided affair; not so much as the actual scoring went, but through the inability of the homesters to get the away double. Congrats to the Grapes on their first win; the Sun, gave quite a good show but the homesters were just that little bit superior to win 5—3. The Royal ended their first lap with another smashing win, this time against the Wynnstay. The latter put up a good resistance but not good enough to subdue the probable champions.

Now that the last matches of the first half of the season have been played, clubs can pause to look around and consider their position. The high spot of the season so far, is, without a doubt, the Royal. Here we have a good strong consistent team, equal with each others ability on the dart board, a fine side, and the envy of other clubs. Have only lost one match this season but have won all their aways. Holds pride of place in the league and are 3 points ahead of their nearest rivals. The Bull have enjoyed their first half and have proved themselves a very good opposition. They came into the money side at the end of last season, and at the moment their prospects seem even brighter. Have only been beaten once at home and once away. A good consistent side, and now holding second position.

Three times champions, and finished up twice in the first three, that is the record of the Prince in the last five seasons. That is what I call consistency and what is more, it's been almost the identical team that has brought honour to the club throughout the seasons. Here we have a grand side but unfortunately for them they are handicapped by shift work. At the moment they are lying third in the league, and are a point below the Bull.

The Waterloo began the season in grand style and a side to reckon with. I am not certain of their league position but I think they lie fourth in the table. Although they lost their last match to the Prince I do not think their display on that occasion will be repeated. The Cross should show an improvement in the second period. The Pon. have not shown consistency so far, although they have a capable side. Brit. are not the side they were last season, but can do better. Are the Grapes on the up-take? their win should give them confidence.

The Australia who have defeated the Royal, Bull, and the Prince and have taken a point off the Waterloo, have quite a handy side, but I cannot see them repeating this performance, in the return matches.

Sun have done very well in their first appearance in the league. They should do better this second half.

The Wynnstey have not had a successful time so far. They have quite a good side and should improve their league position in the naer future.

The Bridge End, Rockman's and the Aqueduct have had an up and down existense in this first half. A little more consistency would see them climbing the league ladder. L.D.

THE CHILDREN ENTERTAIN.—

Last week Llangollen folk were given two delightful evenings by children of the town and district. And they were appreciated, for the Memorial Hall was filled to capacity on Thursday and Rehoboth's congregation on Friday had to be partly accommodated in the gallery.

Thursday night's entertainment was the Welsh Literary Society's last fixture before Xmas. The five schools—3 in the town, Llantysilio and Pentredwr, were each asked to provide a fifteen minute programme. Of course, every item was in Welsh, but as there were a large number of English speaking parents present, they might like to read the account of it in English.

The Junior School party, directed by Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Thomas opened with a brief religious service, including the singing of Calon Lan, and went on to give a programme of folk-songs, beautifully rendered.

The Modern School party directed by Mrs. T. J. Price gave Llangollen history in rhyme, song and poetry. The "rhigymau" about the Bridge "un o'r saith rhyfeddod" (seven wonders) and the Castle: singing "All through the night," the Welsh words of which describe the old woman driving geese from Llangollen to Dolgelly; reciting parts of Alun Mabon and two poems by I. D. Hooson.

The Grammar School gave an excellent programme of recitations and songs, many of the soloists being pupils from Cerrigydrudion and Llan-silin areas. An outstanding item was Wynn Jones's playing on two recorders.

Pentredwr contributed a Nativity Play of unusual excellence, and Llantysilio School varied the programme by doing a folk-dance as well as Welsh folk songs.

Mr. Emrys Davies introduced the items and provided those pleasant links in between in which Welsh comperes specialise.

The hall was full, the atmosphere warm, the young performers thirsty, but Mrs. J. D. Jones and a noble band of helpers hard at work below stairs had all that was needed to meet the case. Lemonade, orangeade, cakes and mince pies for the children; tea and similar fare for the adults. The three ministers, the Revs. G. Aléd Williams, J. T. Jones and G. M. Gruffydd in white cook's hats, aprons, table napkins on the arms, waited upon the company.

A real "Noson Lawen," most encouraging for those who care for the future fWelsh life in our town.

Friday night's Service of Carols by the Quinta Schoolboys Choir was organised by Cylch Merched Rehoboth (Women's Fellowship). It was a happy thought of theirs to invite this choir which has uninterruptedly supported the International Eisteddfod in Children's competition to come here for an evening so that the general public might have the opportunity of enjoying more of this singing; and also to give the boys a treat; for a most delicious tea was served to them before they left for Weston Rhyn. It was grand to see the boys so thoroughly enjoying themselves.

There are some lovely voices in this choir. Their programme of carols was delightful, as indeed one expected from injsæccõns os tæq sæy tðpñw jooõps v at various festivals this last year. Mr. Thomas, the Headmaster and Mr. Graham Wright, the choirmaster, are to be congratulated.

Obituary

THE LATE MR. E. W. ROBERTS.

Mr. E. W. Roberts, whose death was recorded in our last issue had lived at Tanygraig for the last twenty years, for the first decade of which his parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Roberts also resided and farmed there. But Mrs. Roberts died in 1945 and Mr. Ellis Roberts only survived her by four years, so that Mr. Ted Roberts was alone left in the old home, where he had always the solace of good books.

The funeral took place on Tuesday, Dec. 6th. The Rev. Ieuan Lloyd conducted services at Tanygraig and at Llantysilio Churchyard, where a great many relatives and friends had come to pay a tribute of affection and respect to a friend who will be long remembered for his qualities of mind and heart.

The chief mourners were: Mr. and Mrs. Albert Roberts, Mold (brother and sister-in-law); Mr. & Mrs. Harry Drakeley, Mr. and Mrs. Th. Belton (sisters and brothers-in-law); Mrs. A. Roberts, Pentredwr (sister-in-law); Messrs. Dennis, Vaughan and Gareth Roberts (nephews); Mr. and Mrs. E. Williams, Mrs. H. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. J. Edwards (Garth), Mr. T. Evans (uncles and aunts); Mr. and Mrs. R. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. E. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. J. Jones (cousins).

The bearers were Messrs. R. L. Evans, E. Evans, W. Bond and D. Williams.

Foral tributes were:— "Er Serchog Gof am Ted," Albert, Doris, Vaughan, Gareth a Maldwyn; "Er Cof Annwyl am Ted," Nancy a Harry; "Er Cof Annwyl am Ted," Maggie, Tom a Jeffrey; Annie, Dennies and family; Aunty Nell and Uncle Edwin; Aunty and Uncle and Edna, Pengwern; Auntie Annie, Nancy and Jim; Dick a Ceridwen; Eddie ac Eluned; Elsie & Jack Hall and Mrs. Taylor, Oldham; Bill, Mary and Donald, Ty Brith; All at Ty Canol, Eglwyseg; Mr. and Mrs. Fidlly, Whitby; Molly, Cyril and Children, Chester; A. Edwards, Sun Garage; Mr. and Mrs. Drakeley, Margaret and Syd; Arthur a Bob, Pen-y-bryn; Alec, Ann and Pat Bennison; Mr and Mrs. Watkin and Family; Dei, Frank and all at Pentre Ucha; Mr. and Mrs. Moore, Plas Norway; All at Pantglas.

of the late Mr. Edward William Roberts of Tan-y-graig, Eglwyseg wish to express their sincere thanks to all relatives, friends and neighbours for their great kindness and help and also for the floral tributes received in their recent sad bereavement.

THE LATE MR. R. W. WILLIAMS.

The death occurred on Dec. 3 at the Hospital, Welshpool after a long illness of Mr. Robert Wynn Williams of 48 Erw Wen, Welshpool. Mr. Williams was a native of Llangollen, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. R. Williams of Cross Lane and later 3 Park Avenue. He was an inspector with the Automobile Association and was well-known throughout the Mid-Wales area. He served in both World Wars and in the last was taken prisoner in France. He escaped but was recaptured in July 1940 and thereafter remained in the hands of the Germans for 5 years.

In his younger days he was employed in the Llangollen and Wrexham areas and many will remember him for his sporting and social activities in the town—Football and Hockey Clubs, Operatic Society, Conservative Club, etc.

The funeral took place at Welshpool Parish Church on December 6. Canon N. Rees, conducted the Service in the Church and Archdeacon Alcuin Jones late Vicar of Llangollen officiated at the committal. He leaves a widow and two sons. He was 57 years of age.

LLANGOLLEN LADIES CHOIR.—

On Sunday, December 4th, the choir gave a Carol Service at Trinity Church, Acrefair.

Mrs. Emrys Davies read suitable verses from the Scriptures. The choir sang seven three part carols, some with descants, and solos were given by Mr. Price Jones (the Conductor), Miss Gwen Morris, Miss Eluned Morris, Mrs. Gaunt and Mrs. George Jones to a very appreciative congregation. The Choir's next Carol Service will be given at the Welsh Baptist Chapel in Castle St. on Sunday Evening, December 18th.

Trinity Church had so enjoyed the Choir's visit that they hope they will come again at Easter time.

WEDDING.—

EVANS — DAVIES

At Rhewl Methodist Chapel on Saturday morning, Dec. 10th, the marriage was solemnised of Dr. Eben Howell Evans, younger son of Mr. William Evans, and the late Mrs. Evans of Cardiff, to Miss Gwenan Mary Davies, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Davies of Llantysilio Farm.

A large congregation witnessed the ceremony in this surely one of the prettiest of country chapels. The Rev. O. Prys Davies officiated, assisted by the Rev. G. M. Gruffydd. Miss Breneth Edwards the bride's cousin was at the organ, which from Sunday to Sunday is usually played by the bride's mother.

The bride was given away by her father. She wore a ballet length gown of cream lace with headress trimmed with pearls and orange blossom and carried a bouquet of red roses.

Her only sister, Miss Rowena Davies was the bridesmaid. She wore a brocade frock in a tone of mushroom pink trimmed pale grey with hat to match. Her bouquet was of tea-roses.

The duties of best man were carried out by a friend of the groom, Dr. Owen Parry-Jones, and the ushers were the bride's cousin, Mr. Roy Edwards and her brother, Mr. Trevor Davies.

A reception was held at the Bridge End Hotel, where the warmest congratulations and good wishes were expressed. The bride has been a popular figure on the staff of the Royal Salop Infirmary. The groom is in medical practice at Shrewsbury, where they will now reside, at Broadlands, Canonbury, Kingsland.
