Dear Mother

Just a line or two, to let you know that I am well and in good health. I shall write you a letter this afternoon, not having time just now. Received Dad's letter yesterday morning.
We are back for today's rest.
Jack is not far away from me and I hope to see him soon.
Some of his Battalion are with us on the trenches, but unfortunately his company were somewhere on our right and too far away for me to get to him. Hope you are all well at home.
Your loving son, James
