

For the last seven days of Iron Rations, i.e., Bully Beef and Lisaints. (not the kind of Lisaints you send out.)

I am writing to Letty after this. I hope that it will be in time to catch her before she returns to Germany. Shall write to Jack the next time. I received the Waterloo express just before going into action.

I trust that this will find you all in the best of health at home, write soon, and best Love to all.

Your Loving Son
