Dear Mother

I am still alive and kicking and have just received your parcel. It arrived in good condition, I haven't had one smashed yet, it's a pity to see some that my pals get but I have been very lucky with mine. How are you all getting on at home, I am looking forward to Dad's letter now to have some news of Doublais, I don't think I shall be able to find my way about when I come home (I don't think). I hear you have had some snow over there lately, it's getting a bit warmer out here lately and some days it's quite fine, we can look love to Dad and the kids ~~to~~ ~~to~~ and remember me to everybody else, Good night and keep safe and well.

Your loving son
Tom

out now for the rainy weather we are having a little spell now and have got a fire going so we are looking forward to a cheerful evening and a cup of tea and some cake thanks to your parcel. That towel you rapped the box in came in nice time, I lost mine this morning after washing it too. Well I don't know what to tell you now as they are so strict in censoring our letters or else I could write you a book of what's happening out here. Anyhow it's better to keep on the safe side so I think I will finish up and start on the parcel so give my
