

Monday

Dear Mother

I received the 10/- this morning, but I think you have made a mistake about that £10. It was I wrote to my paymaster, about a week ago, & that is what you have had, but I expect you know about it by now, because you ought to have had my letter yesterday. My arm is just the same as when you heard from me last. If Tom happens to come home before it is healed up you must let him come up to see me, because they wont give ~~me~~ leave after what happened last time, and it may be dangerous to myself. Hope you are a lot better, if so you must try and go out as much as ~~much~~ you can, & have a holiday, and do not worry so much about us, it only makes you ill. It is rotten writing with a pen left hand, and being that I have nothing else to say, I shall finish.

Love to all

Jack
