

EASTGATE SHOPS BEFORE WORLD WAR 2.

From Eastgate

Mr and Mrs Fitzgerald, china shop – now Vogue Hairdressing Salon

Mr and Mrs Edmunds, bakery – opposite the former post office

Mr John Rees, butcher – still a butcher's shop.

Miss A Davies, bookseller and stationer, Bridge House – now Bridge Studio.

Mr Tucker, china shop – now Bridge Garage, but on a lower level, before the river was diverted.

From unknown source in 1970s park magazine

LASTGATE SHOPS BEFORE WORLD WAR 2.

Mr John Williams, draper and milliner, and a staunch non-conformist – now a licensed betting shop.

Mrs Catherine David, shoe shop – now V G stores.

Mr Pickard, grocer – now Council Offices

Mr Evan Edwards, butcher – business now carried on by grandson.

Mr W Lewis, greengrocer – now Kumalo House

Mrs Bevan, grocer – now Messrs Wadhams.

From unknown source in 1970s parish magazine