

The will of John Lloyd of Cowbridge, dated 28th., May 1672.

To be buried in his parish church of Cowbridge.

His house in Cowbridge, purchased from William Williams of Llantwit Major, gent, to his wife, Alice during her widowhood and then to his son John Lloyd.

To his son Thomas Lloyd, a feather bed with bedstead, curtains and vallions, feather bolster and all other bed clothes in the chamber over the parlour after his mother's widowhood; and the table and frame also in that chamber.

The rest of his household property to his wife during her widowhood and thence to his son John Lloyd.

All other property to his wife Alice as executrix charged with the upkeep of their sons.

The mark of John Lloyd.

Witnessed by John Rogers, Edward Richard, Francis Williams.

Proved 29th., June 1672.

NO ind.

In the Name of God Amen I John Lloyd of the Towne of Cowbridge in the County of Glamorgan, and whoe the Decretts of Llandaph, being sick in body but of sound and perfect memory. laud and praise be to Almighty God, And for that I have ad vnto to settle and dispose of that little Estate which Almighty God hath bene pleased to bestow vnto me withall for the good and benefit of my wife and children, do make and ordeyne this present writing to be my last will and Testament in manner and forme following I recommend my soule and bequeath my soule into the hands of Almighty God my Maker trusting only in and through the Meritts of Iesus Christ my Saviour to have the forgiveness of all my sinnes and life Eternal; And my body to be buried in my parish Church of Cowbridge. I doe give devise and bequeath, vnto Mye my wife, my house in Cowbridge that I dwelle in together with the Curtilage & garden thereto belonging during her widow Estate only, and from thenceforth I give devise and bequeath my said dwelling house Curtilage and garden with all other appurtenances in as large a manner as I purchaseth the same from or as I bought the said house from William Williams of Cantwilt Maids in the said County of Glamorgan, I give devise and bequeath the said house, vnto my son John Lloyd and his heires and assigns forever I doe give and bequeath vnto my son Thomas Lloyd one feather bed with the bedstead Curtains and vallies foaldrbolster wth all other bed clothes belonging to the same as they now are in the Chamber over the parlour as to her widow Estate and the table and frame in the said Chamber; I doe give and bequeath all the rest of my goods shuttles and household stuffe vnto Mye my said wife during her widow Estate, and from thenceforth vnto John Lloyd my son I give and bequeath all my said goods and household stuffe, so for all other my goods shuttles and debts herrie and bequeath to wholly give and bequeath vnto the said Mye my loving wife whom I doe nominate sole executrix of this my last will and Testament and I charge my said executrix with the maintenance of my both children Thomas Lloyd and John Lloyd In witness whereof I have hereunto put my hand and seale the 28 Day of May in the fourth and twentieth year of the reign of our Soveraign Lord King Charles the first, and in the year of our Lord god 1672

Read and published in the presence of John Rogers of Cowb Junior the Justice of Edward Richard of Newcastle
Tira Williams

The mark of John Lloyd

29th Junij 1672

Alina Loyd Relm et al intercommissarij

R. Owen sur.

Probatum est 29 Junij 1672 per nos Regem curie et fidei a Honorabili Alina Loyd Relm et al Commissariis factis et legitime constat factis et c.

29th die July 1676

This will was then proved to John Rogers & Edward Richard at the house of their Examiners before vs Thomas
Geo. King

John Newlyn
Whomars