

Llanblethian Church Bells

Source: "Bovian" Magazine No. 13 March 1898

These bells were cast and placed in the tower at different periods. The 4th is the only one which has its founder's name. These are the inscriptions:

The Treble Mr. Evan Jenkins, benefactor 1726

2nd Bell The Rev. Mr Miles, vicar 1769

3rd Bell William Thomas Esq. & John Williams, wardens 1769

4th Bell "Peace and Good Neighbourhood" EE, WE 1726

5th Bell Noah Neal Newcome, vicar; John Thomas, curate 1746

The Tenor Anno Domini 1686 by Sir Leoline Jenkins

This bell was given and is now maintained by his brother, Evan Evan Evans (sic)

There is also a small bell in a lower loft bearing the inscription:

Ex dono Jenkins de Aberthin qui obdormit April 1702 aged 70
