

The Boys of the Grammar School
- Cowbridge -

PRESENT

“YOUTH AT THE HELM”

(A farcical comedy by Paul Vulpius, translated by Hubert Griffith).

AT

THE PAVILION, COWBRIDGE

ON

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 15th, 1937.

COMMENCING AT 7.30 P.M.

Dramatis Personæ

(In the order in which they first appear).

FITCH, a secretary	G. A. FLOOK
WILLIAM, a commissioner	W. THOMAS
DOROTHY WILSON, a typist	W. P. GRONOW
OFFICE BOY	M. R. WYNN
RANDOLPH WARRENDER	V. D. WESTCOTT
AN OLD GENTLEMAN	G. T. J. PRATT
CHAIRMAN, of the London and Metropolitan Bank	J. P. BARTLETT
PONSONBY, its managing director	J. H. COLLINS
YVONNE, the chairman's daughter	H. E. PHILLIPS
NICHOLSON	} members of the Board	V. L. THOMAS
HOLMAN		G. HOWELLS
LORD FARLEY, chairman of the City Industrial Bank	B. E. EDWARDS
ROBERTS, of the Board of Trade	C. LI. JONES

Synopsis of Scenery

The Scene throughout is laid in an office—also used as a Board Room—of the London and Metropolitan Bank.

There is an interval of about a week between Act I and Act II, while Act III takes place two weeks later.

PRODUCER	Mr. F. COLIN RAGGATT
ASSISTANT PRODUCER	Mr. G. H. BAUGH
STAGE MANAGER	Mr. J. D. OWEN
ASSISTANT STAGE MANAGER	Mr. A. B. CODLING

Mr. J. MORGAN is responsible for the make-up.

Music by the School Orchestra conducted and trained by Mr. D. ROGER JONES

The National Anthem will be sung before the performance and Hen Wlad fy Nhadau at the close.

ADMISSION BY PROGRAMME ONLY.

Mr W. J. Williams

Row No. J Seat No. 11912

If the Seats are not required please return this Programme at once to the Headmaster.