

Cardiff Library Deeds in Glamorgan Record Office

CL/Deeds 1/907

Between John Thomas of C, yeoman, (1)

Thomas Rees of C, labourer (2)

David John of C, labourer, (iii)

Whereas by deed of assignment 26/5/1778 between Margaret Deere of Ash Hall, widow, Thomas Rees and John Thomas

Reciting deed of assignment 4/10/1775 betw Thos Thomas of Cardiff, gent, and Margaret Deere

Reciting deed of 4/10/1775 betw Cissil Williams of Llandaff, widow, and Thomas Thomas

Reciting deed of 20/3/1770 betw Thos Rees and Cissil Williams for £12, he (TR) had granted CW

- all that mess where TR lived and curtilage and garden in East Village, having a stable, court and garden of Catherine Wms, widow, Elizabeth and Dorothy Williams then in ten of David Abraham the younger on the E,
- close of John Edmondson, Esq, called Mill Field on N
- smith's forge, court and garden of David Abraham on W
- highway to S,

then in tenure of Thomas Rees lately purchased of C, E and D Williams.

[TR bought of CW, mortgaged to TT – cost rose to £20 with interest and costs, so MD took over mortgage, then JT, then DJ]

CL/Deeds 1/914

20 March 1783

Revd Evan Jones of Cowbridge (1), Frances Llewellyn of C, spr (2), Thomas Morgan the younger of Aberthin, gent, and Henry Llewellyn, scholar of Jesus College, Oxford

Letter, E Jones, Ap 1/1792

.... With tears in my eyes I now inform you that I have been obliged to relinquish my own house in order to live peaceably which was not practicable by cohabiting owing to her intolerable ill temper and cruelty

E Jones

Left £1300 and so much money as the dw ho at Cowbridge lately bought of the trustees of Henry Morgan, formerly of Bristol, linen draper.....

All that mess/dw ho, 1 garden and curtilage and further N end of stable as was in ten/occ of Frances Richards or undertenant Francis Thomas, glazier, in High St., Cowbridge, between

Ho late in possession of Evan Lewis and now of Edward Bates, surgeon, on W, and

Great house late in possession of Mrs Jane Carne, spinster, and now of Cecil Thomas, widow on E

And same pses were purchased by James Morgan, late of C, mercer, from said Frances Richards, then late of Cowbridge but afterwards of Llanblethian, widow, and were by said James Morgan devised to the said Henry Morgan whose heirs conveyed it to Evan Jones and Henry Llewellyn.