Dear Mr James

Thank you for your kind invitation to the opening of the school museum. The acceptance slip is enclosed with this letter.

I am also enclosing a few photographs and other oddments which may be of interest to you concerning Lewis John Jones whose sports cup we brought down to the school some time ago

I am sorry to have been so long in sending them but after the dispersal of our Muleshome we had to contact other cousins of Lee's to find the various items

The one snapshot may serve to fix the dates of his time at Bowbridge and maybe some of the other boys in it may be there with you on July 21st.

Yours sincerely

Rosalind M Jones
