FORMER COWBRIDGE MAYOR'S DAUGHTER

Members of well-known Vale of Glamorgan families were married at the Church of the Holy Cross, Cowbridge, this afternoon. They were Mr. W. V. Harman Rees, son of Mr. Rees, quarry proprietor, and Mrs. Rees, Tryvychan, Merthymawr-road, Bridgend, and Miss Freda Pauline Mills, daughter of Mrs. Mills, Merthymawr-road, Bridgend, and the late Alderman A. T. Mills, who was twice Mayor of Cowbridge.

The ceremony was conducted by the Vicar of Cowbridge (the Rev. Gilbert Williams) and the Rector of Nolton, Bridgend (the Rev. G. T. Gravell).

The bride was dressed in heavy ivory crepe, with accordion-pleating trimmed with golden sequins, with net veil trimmed with orange blossom and crystal beads. She carried bouquet of pink and white carnations and white heather. The bridesmaids were Miss Queenie Rees (sister of the bridegroom) and Miss Nancy Thomas, Ashley House, Cowbridge. The attendants were Miss Betty Raven and Master E. Burt (niece and nephew).

The best man was Mr. Gaer Rees (brother of the bridegroom) and grooms-men Messrs. C. C. Mills and W. Harold Yorwerth.

The reception was held at the bride's house, Somerset Lodge, Merthymawr-road, Bridgend, after which the happy couple left for Scotland.
