

Lining up for a snap . . .

THIS FLASHBACK to 1910 comes from Mrs Jenny Hopkins, of The Parade, Barry, who wondered whether it might bring back memories for the folk in the Vale.

The woman sitting hird from the left in the front row (with a young girl in plaits at her feet) was her husband's great aunt, Mrs Sarah "Sally" David, wife of Mr John David, of John David, Watts and Morgan, Auctioneers.

"They lived in a house next to the Bear Hotel, Cowbridge, called Llwyn Celyn," says Mrs Hopkins. "John David is the taller of the men in the back row. The picture was taken at Cowbridge Carnival on July 13, 1910."
