Choreographer

Stephen Shropshire (USA)

Shropshire studied at the Juillard School in New York. He won both the Grand Prize and the Publics prize at the Luxembourg International Choreographic Competition and has created works for Iceland Ballet Company, Scapino ballet in Rotterdam and was resident choreographer with Station Zuid in the Netherlands.

Shropshire used the characteristics of music – hesitation, rhythm, sadness and joy to bridge the gap between 18th Century music and the 21st Century for this production.
