Dear Mr. Jones

In accordance with recent conversations, the Pittsburgh National Gymanfa Ganu can assume the room expense for Mr. Robin Jones for his stay at the Hilton Hotel and Towers during the Gymanfa. We wish it were possible to assume all his expenses, but our limited budget will just now allow it.

Please confirm that he will act in the same capacities as in Baltimore - we think he did an outstanding job.

Please let us hear from you as soon as possible so that we can make the necessary room reservation for him. If we can be of any assistance in making hotel reservations for you, please let us know.

We are looking forward to seeing you, Ms. Lloyd, and Mr. Jones in Pittsburgh. It is indeed a beautiful city situated on three rivers we and will be happy to have the opportunity to show it off.

Sincerely

J. C. Williams

RE: Mr. Robin Jones, MC for Noson Lawen (letter to Jonathan Jones, 1/17/89 and phone calls by Nelson Llewellyn to Penrhyn Lloyd at the Welsh Tour Board in Cardiff.

After several attempts to reach some one at the Welsh Tour Board in Cardiff, I did receive a phone call this morning from Penrhyn Lloyd.

Ms Lloyd said that in regard to Mr. Jones, he will be coming but that the source of paying his air fare as arranged last year is not available this year, however it is now arranged by Ms Lloyd that Mr. Jones air fare will be paid by funds from The Welsh Tour Board and that as stated in the letter of January 17th to Jonathan Jones, The Pittsburgh Committee will stand the hotel room cost while is in Pittsburgh for the National.

I have asked Ms Lloyd to please confirm the above information by letter, which she agreed to do.

I also indicated to Ms Lloyd that in all probability the Pittsburgh Committee will want to use Mr. Jones for other activities during the weekend as was the case in Baltimore.

Mr. Robin Jones address is as follows: S4C, Sophia Clos, Pontcana, Cardiff, Wales, UK

Ms Penrhyn Lloyd may be reached at the Welsh Tourist Board in Cardiff, the phone number is 011-44-222-499-909.
