Dear Mrs. Kondrat:

It was certainly a pleasure meeting you and the committee here at the hotel on Saturday, January 28. In all honesty, it has been quite some time since I've met such a genuinely nice group of people. I'm sure your combined efforts and dedication will prove to be the key to the success of Gymanfa Ganu.

As we discussed, I have enclosed a menu proposal with several different choices that can be mixed or matched as you wish. You will recall that the Dinner price that we agreed upon is $23.00 inclusive of 16% gratuity with the Sunday Afternoon Sandwich Buffet being $6.90 inclusive of 16% gratuity.

After you have reviewed this information with the committee please feel free to contact me to arrange any final menu plans. Should you have any questions in the meantime, don't hesitate to call.

Cordially,

David J. Filson
Catering Manager
