Dear Mr. Llewellyn,

Thank you for your kind communication of February 14, also for the enclosure that will be helpful in the absence of information from Pittsburgh. I have received some photographs of the committee, but that is all. It would be nice to receive greater co-operation from the sponsoring organization, as time is running out for adequate exposure in our Welsh-American publications.

To do the job well, as each National gymanfa festival ends, announcements and advertising for the next should immediately begin. It is not just good enough to think that everything will fall in place once a successful bid has been made. I can only hope that our friends in Pittsburgh will grow a little more enterprising in the time we have left for a successful public relations program. (c)

Prior to receiving your letter, I had written to a good source in Caernarfon, requesting some information on the Masonic Choir. Anticipating response from that direction within the next few weeks, I feel confident that we should be able to do well with advance publicity. Along with what you may be able to make available, the writing of press releases and feature stories can be made much easier.

I will have a story in the March issue of NINNAU touching on the Pittsburgh event, mainly reflections on the 1938 and the 1965 Nationals in the city. I was not at the former, but I was there in 1965, when we had a most enjoyable gymanfa, with everything contained under one roof at the Hilton. It was on that occasion that our mutual friend, Morris Wrench, was acclaimed as one of the great conductors of our Welsh-American world. I really enjoy his letters. Morris has an effervescent sense of humor.

Yes, we hope to be in Niagara Falls, when it will be a privilege to meet with you again. Our kindest regards and best wishes to you and Mrs. Llewellyn.

Very sincerely,

John O. Morgans

P.S.--When you have the opportunity (no hurry), could you send me about twelve sheets of the official 1989 stationery? Later on the copies will be valuable in effecting introduction to publishers and editors other than NINNAU and Y Drych. Thank you.

Dear Mr. Llewellyn,

Thank you for your kind communication of February 11, also for the enclosure that will be helpful in the absence of information from Pittsburg. I have received some photographs of the committee, but that is all. It would be nice to receive greater co-operation from the sponsoring organization, as this is running out for adequate exposure in our Welsh-American publications.

To do the job well, as each National event's last year, announcements and advertising for the next should immediately begin. It is not just good enough to think that everything will fall in place once a successful bid has been made. I can only hope that our friends in Pittsburg will grow a little more enterprising in the time we have left for a successful public relations program.

Prior to receiving your letter, I had written to a good source in Germantown, requesting some information on the Masonic Order. Anticipating response from that direction within the next few weeks, I feel confident that we should be able to do well with advance publicity. Also, with what you may be able to make available, the writing of press releases and feature stories can be made much easier.

I was not at the former, but I was there in 1968, when we had a most enjoyable symposium, with everything contained under one roof at the Hilton. It was on that occasion that our mutual friend, Morris Branch, was acclaimed as one of the great conductors of our Welsh-American world. I really enjoy his letters. Morris has an effortless sense of humor.
