The Saint David's Society Of Pittsburgh

Welcomes you to

The 58th Welsh National Gymanfa Ganu

August 31, September 1, 2 and 3, 1989

June, 1989

Dear Members and Friends:

I would like to extend a very personal invitation to all of you to attend the 58th Annual Welsh National Gymanfa Ganu in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, during the Labor Day weekend - August 31, September 1, 2, and 3, 1989. Many of you have fond memories of the National Gymanfa Ganu held in Pittsburgh in 1965. How time flies!

A variety of interesting and challenging seminars, tours and other events are scheduled, including the appearance of The North Wales Masonic Choir which has members from many male choirs located in North Wales. As always, the "crown jewel" of our stay will be the Sunday afternoon and evening sessions of the Gymanfa Ganu conducted by T. Gwynn Jones of Llanfairfechan, Wales.

There is a new spirit manifesting itself among the officers, trustees and members of the Welsh National Gymanfa Ganu Association. Our goal is a larger and more participatory membership moving forward under the guidance of our elected officers and trustees. We will then be better able to meet the purpose for which our WNGGA was organized - "To preserve, develop and promote our Welsh religious and cultural heritage ..." To this end I urge all members to attend the annual meeting of the membership at 9:00 a.m. Saturday, September 2nd. If you are not now a member, become a member and join us at the meeting. Let's make things happen!

Sincerely,

Paul E. Stevens
President, WNGGA

SEMINARS — EXECUTIVE CENTER

1 The Anglo-Welsh Poets

The tradition of poetry is as strong today in Wales as it has been through the ages. Poets have always been considered artists as well as leaders in thought. Those whose chosen mode of expression is the English language are accurately termed "Anglo Welsh" writers. How many do you know besides Dylan Thomas?

The most highly qualified expert we could obtain will lead the discussion. Speaker: David Jenkins, William & Mary College.

2 WinWest

Wales: Economic Development & Investment Opportunities

Can Welsh people continue to live and work in their own country? Can industry and jobs be saved? Learn what the prospects are for investment in light industry in Welsh communities.

3 Ancient Tales of Ancient Wales

The heroes of Welsh tradition, real and fictitious, will be presented to us as they appear in the Mabinogion and other old documents.

Our conductor in this adventure will be our own well-known Robert A. Fowkes, whose column on learning Welsh is a regular feature of the NINNAU and Y DRYCH.

2:00 p.m. (choose one)

4 Genealogy

One of the most absorbing pursuits of the transplanted Welsh is to search out their ancestry. Have you relatives in Wales of whom you have lost track?

To help us, how fortunate we are to have our own Marylou Wilkinson, a well-trained and skilled genealogist, whose column is a regular in Y DRYCH and NINNAU.

5 How to Sing in Welsh

Are you afraid to attempt "Gwm Rhondda" and other favorites in Welsh? Have no fear - help is at hand! Hefina Phillips, Vice President of Gymdeithas Madog. Needless to say, she is an expert on the Welsh language.

6 Welsh Recording Trends — Dafydd Ewan

"20 Years of Welsh Recording and current trends in Welsh Music" with Dafydd Iwan, Managing Director of Sain Recording Company, composer and singer of popular songs should be a most interesting seminar to attend.
