

MEMORANDUM

7/27/87

To: Mae Anderson
From: David Thomas
Date: July 22nd, 1987
Subject: Sunday worship service offering

Dear Mae,

Just a quick reiteration of the meeting last Friday, July 17th, 1987, with Mary Mergenthal, you, and me.

The arrangement regarding the offering which you have worked out with Central Presbyterian Church is very acceptable to me. Fifty percent (50%) of the excess average loose offering for a Labor Day Weekend Sunday service will go to the Saint Paul '87 W.N.G.G. Committee to be donated to a charity of the committee's choosing. The other 50% will be set aside for the Welsh National Gymanfa Ganu Association and will not be placed into the organizing committee's general treasury. This share of the Sunday offering will then be remitted to the WNGGA when the 50% split is made of the excess funds.

This is, I think, a fair and equitable resolution and hopefully will be acceptable to your committee.

As for me, I can't wait for the National because your committee and you have done a terrific job and its going to be a great weekend.

GYMANFA SESSIONS

Director: Iwan Edwards of LaChienne, Quebec.

Organist: Gwyndaf Roberts of Utica, New York

The sessions will be held in the Roy Wilkins Auditorium, part of the St. Paul Civic Center complex. Seating capacity is from 2-5,000. Mr. Edwards will be in Minnesota this fall and we have arranged for him to see this facility.

SUNDAY WORSHIP SERVICE

Preaching minister: The Rev. Vivian Jones, native of Wales, and presently senior pastor of the Plymouth Congregational Church in Minneapolis. The service will be held at the Central Presbyterian Church in downtown St. Paul (The Rev. Neal Lloyd, once a member of the National Trustees Board of the Gymanfa Association, is a former pastor of this congregation).

CONCERT

Featured at the concert will be Ar Log, popular folk group and recording artists from Wales, and soprano soloist Janice Kimes of St. Paul. Mrs. Kimes has sung with the Rhos Choir in concert in Wales and is also the director of the Bel Canto Voices, a Twin Cities girls' choir which has competed at the National Eisteddfod in recent years.

For the concert, we are endeavoring to secure the Ordway Music Theater, which has seating for 1800 and is located just two blocks from the headquarters hotel. However, we must wait until their primary tenants, the St. Paul Chamber Orchestra, the St. Paul Opera, and the Shubert Club, have set their programs for the year. In the event we are unable to use this facility, the concert will likely be held in the Radisson Hotel ballroom, which has seating capacity of 1,600 and will be very adequate.

We have been in contact with Mr. Jonathan Jones of the Welsh Tourist Board. They have indicated they will be happy to assist with the cost of bringing cultural groups here, much the same as they did in Montreal.
