Dear Mr. Meadows:

The St. David's Society of Utica Executive Board met last evening to consider your request to entertain the 1981 National Gymanfa Ganu in Utica, New York.

There seems to be a favorable interest among the members but some additional specific information is requested:

1. May we have sample programs from the last three Nationals.
2. Approximately how many people should we expect and how many would need housing.
3. What is our financial responsibility? How much backing do we get from the National organization and how is the money divided if there is a net profit?
4. Is there any advance of funds from the National organization to launch the plans?
5. What are the definite dates when the 1981 National Gymanfa Ganu will be held.

May we have a reply at your earliest convenience.

Yours sincerely,

Irene E. Jones

Dear Irene Jones.

Thank you very much for your reply and interest in the 1981 National Gymanfa.

Enclosed is a copy of the constitution which I'm sure will answer many questions, also reports and programs of: Philadelphia, Ottawa and Minneapolis, which also will answer many questions.

The 1979 Niagara Falls report is not completed, but I will be happy to furnish one when it is, as you may know the Niagara Hilton Hotel was the headquarters at that time with other Hotel and Motels picking up the over flow, a total of approximately 450 rooms.

The banquet served at Niagara Falls was well over one thousand and was very successful.

The answer to question #3 will be found in the constitution.

Many Nationals have been launched with a loan from the National Association for the first mailing, which is the one that asks for contributions, as you will note from the financial reports.

The dates for the 1981 National would be: September, 3-4-5- & 6th.

Number of registrants at, Niagara Falls, 1416- Minneapolis, 1285 and at Ottawa, 1771, plus many others who come in just for the main attraction on Sunday.

I would be very happy to meet with your committee when-ever it be convenient.

sincerely yours

Jack Meadows
