Hi Mary

Thanks so much for updates. Oh dear. I'll forward your email to the Site people as it is they that really have the magic. I see these 3 options.

- 1) Run the seminar twice
- 2) move to a bigger room
- 3) leave as is

I think we have already ordered signs and programmes so not sure how this will pan out). I'll get back to you as soon as I have an answer.

Hi Mary

Here is the final list. I've gone ahead and updated the writers panel based on room capacity but am unaware of what figure was given to Ellis (no one has got back to me on this so I'm using my best judgment). The figure in parenthesis is the room capacity (all theatre style except dance workshop). The first figure is the no. of tickets to print allowing spares for onsite sales on the day to fill slots. Hope that helps. Almost there...

Best wishes

Dear Mary

Me again! Well it seems the folk dance drama has been resolved and it will now be held in Club Regent Rm on the first (ground) floor. This has 3,800 square feet (3 x sem rooms). So go ahead and sell tickets up to 90 (but print 100 so we have some on the day). Hope that works. Thanks again for bringing this to my attention and don't hesitate to contact me with any other queries.

Very best wishes

Hi Mary

Not sure if you got this info but apparently the writers panel moved to a larger room also. The updated info was emailed to Ellis Jones I believe but may not have filtered to you yet. I don't have the figures - this is the one sem that I am not responsible for. But thought I should give you a heads up.

Very best and thanks for everything

Mabli,

Thanks so much for finding a larger room for the folk dance drama. I have five more people who want to attend the seminar. So it works out great!!!!!!!!!!!!

All for now,
Mary

Hi Mary

Just to keep you posted. I'am trying to relocate the dance workshop to a bigger room so stand by until you get my official confirmation. I'm hoping to get 90 places max. Will be in touch as soon as I hear back.

Thanks for your patience!

Mary,
Great news - we can move S14 to Club Regent on Sat p.m. - which means you can keep accepting registrations for this popular seminar.
Sue- hope this works for you re program.
Is someone filling in for John to change signs to Club Regent for S14 seminar (from Garden Room)
Eryl
PS For everyone's info we had not contracted this room for Sat, so the Fairmont are accomodating our needs by allowing us the use of this room for Sat a.m. and p.m.

Eryl,

That will be fine. I will tell the registrants the situation when I call. Will figure out a procedure that applies to all as I want to make sure no one pays twice for a seminar or pays and isn't able to attend. Right now I know the names of all these people but once the registration materials leave our office then it will be up to the local venue to exchange tickets and collect funds. At the moment I have less than 10 who are interested in attending S14, over 90 that is, but we still have a week to go. I anticipate registrations to come in until the day I leave for San Jose. Refunds will continue to be processed here until I leave.

Thanks very much for your quick reply!!!!!!

Gareth: Thanks for the note and particularly about the need for Songs of the Dragon. We had planned to bring only 25 but we'll up that to 50 now that we know there will be some references to it. Yes, we'll have those for sale at the same place as the hymnals--I believe it is to be the room next to registration.

Ellis, Thanks for response to red roses question. We will order them tomorrow and they will probably be delivered on the Sat. when the floral arrangements for the concert are to be delivered. I have forwarded your email to Eryl Barker for her to arrange the table with tablecloth at the service, to Idris Evans because his two grandchildren are the likely candidates for the "rose children" and the Rev. Robin Rees who is team leader for the Church Service. So all interested parties are aware of the requirements and the procedures. Thank you for spelling it out so clearly.

I have one more question. I seem to remember that you will be bringing "Songs of the Dragon" books with you. I just want to make sure that you will have some for sale for the informal singing. Gareth has been in touch with all the informal singing directors and they will use the hymn books as usual but will also introduce some songs for the "Songs of the Dragon" to present a little variety. Hope this all meets with your approval.

Regards,

Ann

Mabli,

Thanks so much for your e-mail. No, I hadn't received the latest update on Seminar F17. That is good news. Gustavus has been having some trouble with viruses lately so they changed procedures for a while. All should be o:k now, though. Others have had trouble getting through to me via e-mail as well.

If I can be of any other assistance to you, please don't hesitate to let me know.

All for now,
Mary
