

Dear Alan:

Thank you very much for the part you played in bringing National Gymanfa Ganu to Bellevue and the Meydenbauer Center. The East King County Convention and Visitors Bureau appreciates the positive economic impact that meetings like yours have on our area. Not only that but you were a terrific group to work with. People in the hospitality community here are going to miss being asked "What does Gymanfa Ganu mean?"

Please take the time to give us feedback on how we did as a Bureau handling your convention service needs. I have enclosed a Post Convention Survey and an envelope for your convenience.

I understand that you are not anxious to chair a repeat performance soon, but I do want to let you know that I would be delighted to work with you again if there is any service I can provide in the future.

Sincerely,

Linda Broderick

Anwyl Alan:

Congratulations on a great Gymanfa! It was fantastic.

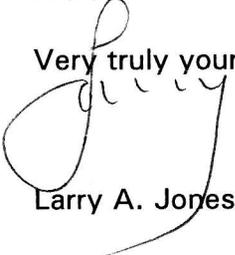

I understand that you are unable to rest right now, being off to Denmark. When are you back to your normal speed, please consider two things.

1. We're neighbors now. Beyond me seeing your digs at the coming open house (which I've always planned on attending), we should have lunch some time.

2. I noted with surprise that the current Y Drych includes a review of a work on medieval Welsh law by a University of Washington professor Robin Chapman Stacey. Was she at the Gymanfa? I almost feel I remember a Stacey. I realize that her topic is of interest only to a slice of our membership, but isn't there some venue for PSWA to provide a forum for her? I would be happy to help, if I could conceptualize the proper setting. If you're interested, let me know.

Diolch.

Very truly yours

Larry A. Jones

Dear Mr. Upshall:

Thank you for taking the time to write regarding the National Gymanfa Ganu Welsh Festival held in Bellevue earlier this month.

It is always a pleasure to receive such positive comments from our guests, and especially exciting to learn that we exceeded your expectations. Your kind remarks, along with my personal thanks, have been passed on to Jeannie, Catherine and our entire staff.

We truly appreciate the opportunity we were given to be a part of the Welsh Festival, and were pleased that your event was a success. If there is ever any way in which I may be of assistance to you in the future, please feel free to call on me.

Cordially,

Dear Mr. Upshall,

Thank you for taking the time to write a letter to Kim Price.

It is so nice to hear such wonderful comments about one of our employees. We agree with you that Kim is a very special person and a definite asset to the Best Western Bellevue Inn.

It is our goal that every guest receive the type of service that you experienced during your stay. It pleases me to hear that you had such a positive experience staying with us and I hope we have further opportunities to serve you in the future!

Thank you again!

Sincerely,

Cristy Smith
